

Continuous Quality Improvement Tool

This tool is used to communicate information and improvements within the continuous quality improvement process. This form will allow various review committees, such as the safety committee, human rights committee, records review committee, etc. to communicate areas of concern and recommend corrective action(s) to the continuous quality improvement team and for the continuous quality improvement team/management team to respond to the committees.

Risk Prevention

Risk Response

Quality Improvement

Section One:

Date: _____

Individual completing the form: _____

Review Committee or Group: _____

Area(s) of concern: _____

Recommended Corrective Action: _____
